

Society of Critical Care Medicine
North Central Chapter

SCCM Congress Chapter Meeting
Sunday, February 17, 2019
Time: 1505-1551 PST

Attendees: Deanna Sellers, Melissa Brunsvold, Paul Bjordahl, Jenny Guido, Bill Browne, Daniel Storzer, Jason Kirkness, Lesta Whalen, Erin Brokl

1. Update received from Deanna Sellers regarding getting the chapter reestablished and back in good standing with SCCM. Still working to get the funds from the bank account established by the previous chapter officers.
2. Discussion held about how to establish participation in the chapter.
  - a. SCCM Connect is available for communication.
  - b. There was discussion of having a half day conference versus having an evening meet and greet for networking and providing CME credits.
    - i. Jason shared that he has resources for videoconferencing that can be used for members who are out of town.
    - ii. Will need to establish goals and objectives.
    - iii. Deanna, Jason and Erin are planning to meet as they live in the same geographical area.
    - iv. Discussed starting small and can grow the programs over time based on level of participation.
    - v. Planning first event for the fall of 2019.
  - c. As the chapter consists of multiple states, there was discussion around each state providing a location to meet with education topics.
    - i. Some topics discussed was holding an FCCS Course, NIPPV, Toxicology, Hemodynamics, ARDS.
3. Lesta Whalen volunteered to be treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel N. Storzer, DNP, ACNP, FCCP, FCCM